Instructor: Sefakor Komabu-Pomeyie, PhD

Special Education: Global Disability Studies

• May 22 - August 11
• Asynchronous & online
• Open to undergrads, grad students & professionals

A 3-credit UVM summer course

The University of Vermont

GO.UVM.EDU/GLOBALDISABILITIES

Explore how disability is viewed across cultures in Africa as you consider your own work in advocacy and systemic change. Explore a supportive pathway into educational systems and community life for immigrant and refugee students in K-12 schools and post-secondary programs.

Credits can be used toward completion of the UVM Graduate Certificate in Disability Studies.

Grants to offset tuition costs are available through the Vermont Student Assistance Corporation (VSAC). Contact Dr. Hemant Ghising: ghising@vsac.org, (802) 503-5237.

Instructor:
Sefakor Komabu-Pomeyie, PhD

Register online. Financial support available through VSAC.

sefakor.komabu-pomeyie@uvm.edu
(802) 557-8040